

Adult Classes - Sunday Morning

June 3, 2018 - August 26, 2018

'Philippians'

Teacher: Keith Mask, Prof. at Freed Hardeman

Classroom Group: Cornerstone Room: CAC

It is easy to rejoice and be happy when things are going well in our lives. But Paul wrote, "Rejoice in the Lord always" when he was in prison. Paul experienced a joy that was not dependent on circumstances; a contentment that difficulties, church division, and even the possibility of death could not suppress. Join us this summer as we explore Paul's message to a struggling church that had lost its focus. Paul will teach the Philippians and us that we can live joyfully in the midst of troubles by keeping our focus on Jesus.

'Identity Theft: Reclaiming Who God Created You To Be'

Teacher: Mark Hawk

Classroom Group: Seekers Room: 114

Who are you? You're more than a gender, a job, or jumbled chromosomes. In Christ, you're created to be special and for a purpose. We'll explore why and for what in this class.

'Coming To Terms: Understand The Meaning Behind Our Words'

Teacher: Alan DeJarnatt

Classroom Group: The Upper Room Room: 216

We use a lot of church words that can have altered meanings with use over time. By discussing together and refining definitions according to the Word of God we will deepen our Kingdom awareness.
